

Andres E. Silva is in his junior year of undergraduate studies in Music

Education at Clayton State University. Andres began studying violin in the Fulton County Public Schools and has studied violin for 14 years under various teachers including Judith Cox and Raymond Leung of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Jeanne Johnson, and John Pesky.

During High School he served as Concertmaster of the Forest Park High School Chamber Orchestra, and was awarded the Orchestra Achievement Award in his senior year. That same year he was also selected to be part of GMEA's All-State Orchestra, being the only music student from Clayton County to participate in many years. Andres is now Assistant Concertmaster of the Southern Crescent Symphony Orchestra where he has performed for 5 seasons. Andres served as Music Director of Central Spanish SDA church in 2006-2007 and now serves as Choir Director at Forest Park UMC since July 2006. He also maintains a private music studio at Harmonies Music Inc. in Jonesboro, Georgia.
